

deep

forest/woods

a woman/wife

a man/husband

children

food

poor

winter

unhappy

happy

Deep in the forest, a man and his wife have two little children and live a poor life.
Now it is winter and that is not good.
The father's unhappy because there's no food.

251312

an answer

right

leave

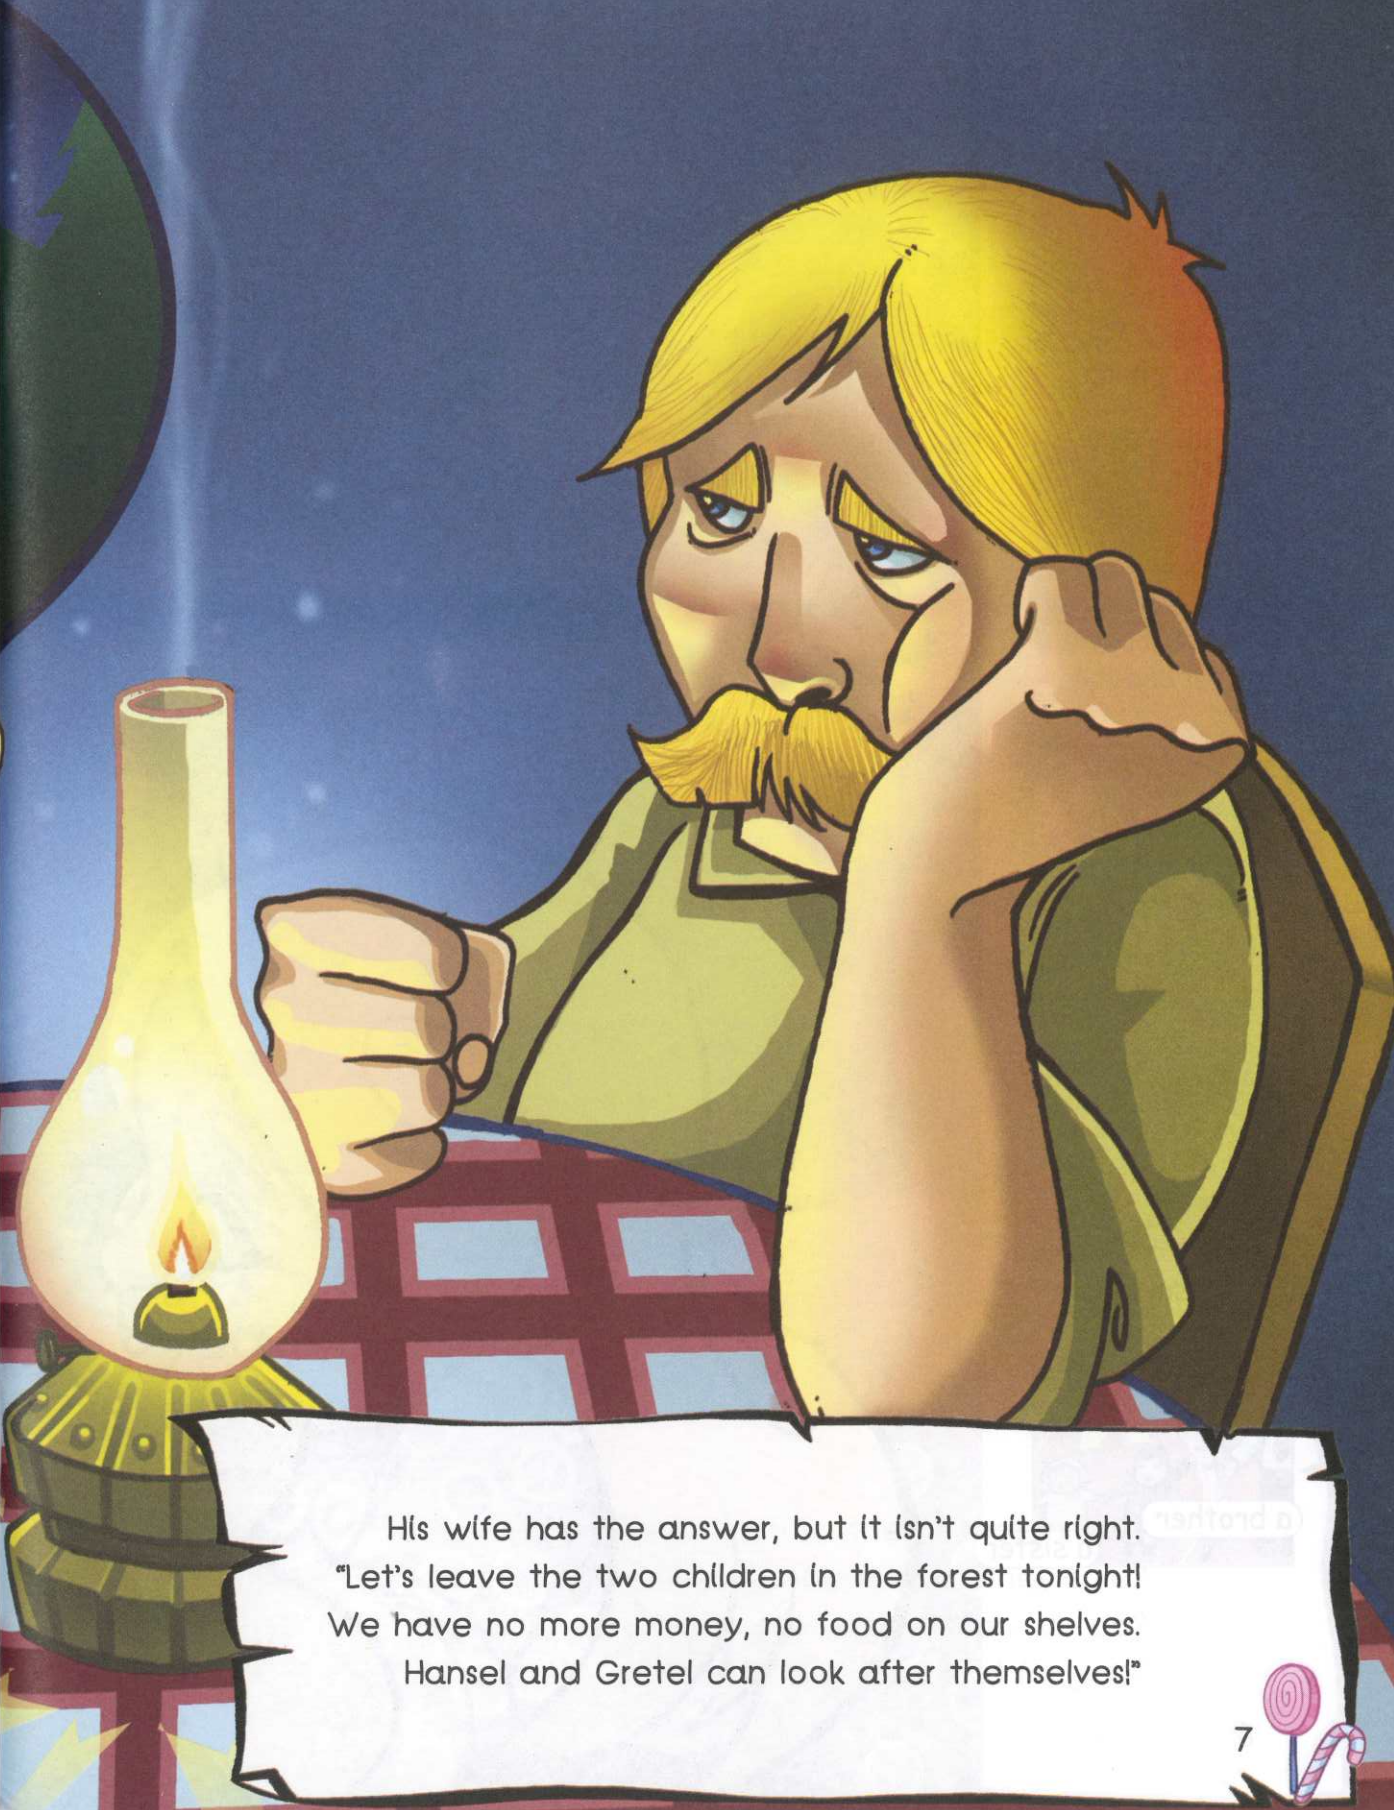

money

a shelf

shelves

His wife has the answer, but it isn't quite right. "Let's leave the two children in the forest tonight! We have no more money, no food on our shelves. Hansel and Gretel can look after themselves!"

listen/hear

a bed

cry

say

a brother

a sister

The children are listening - they're not in bed. Gretel starts crying, "Did you hear what they said? Hansel, my brother, what can we do? This is the end for me and for you!"

