

SONG

A Faraway Land!

Our story starts in a palace with towers, with beautiful gardens full of birds and flowers.
Princess Perihan lives in this land, and everyone wants to win her hand.

Princes bring gifts from everywhere,
to show her dad how much they care.
But in this story you will see what the greatest gift can be!

Sultan

daughter

a prince

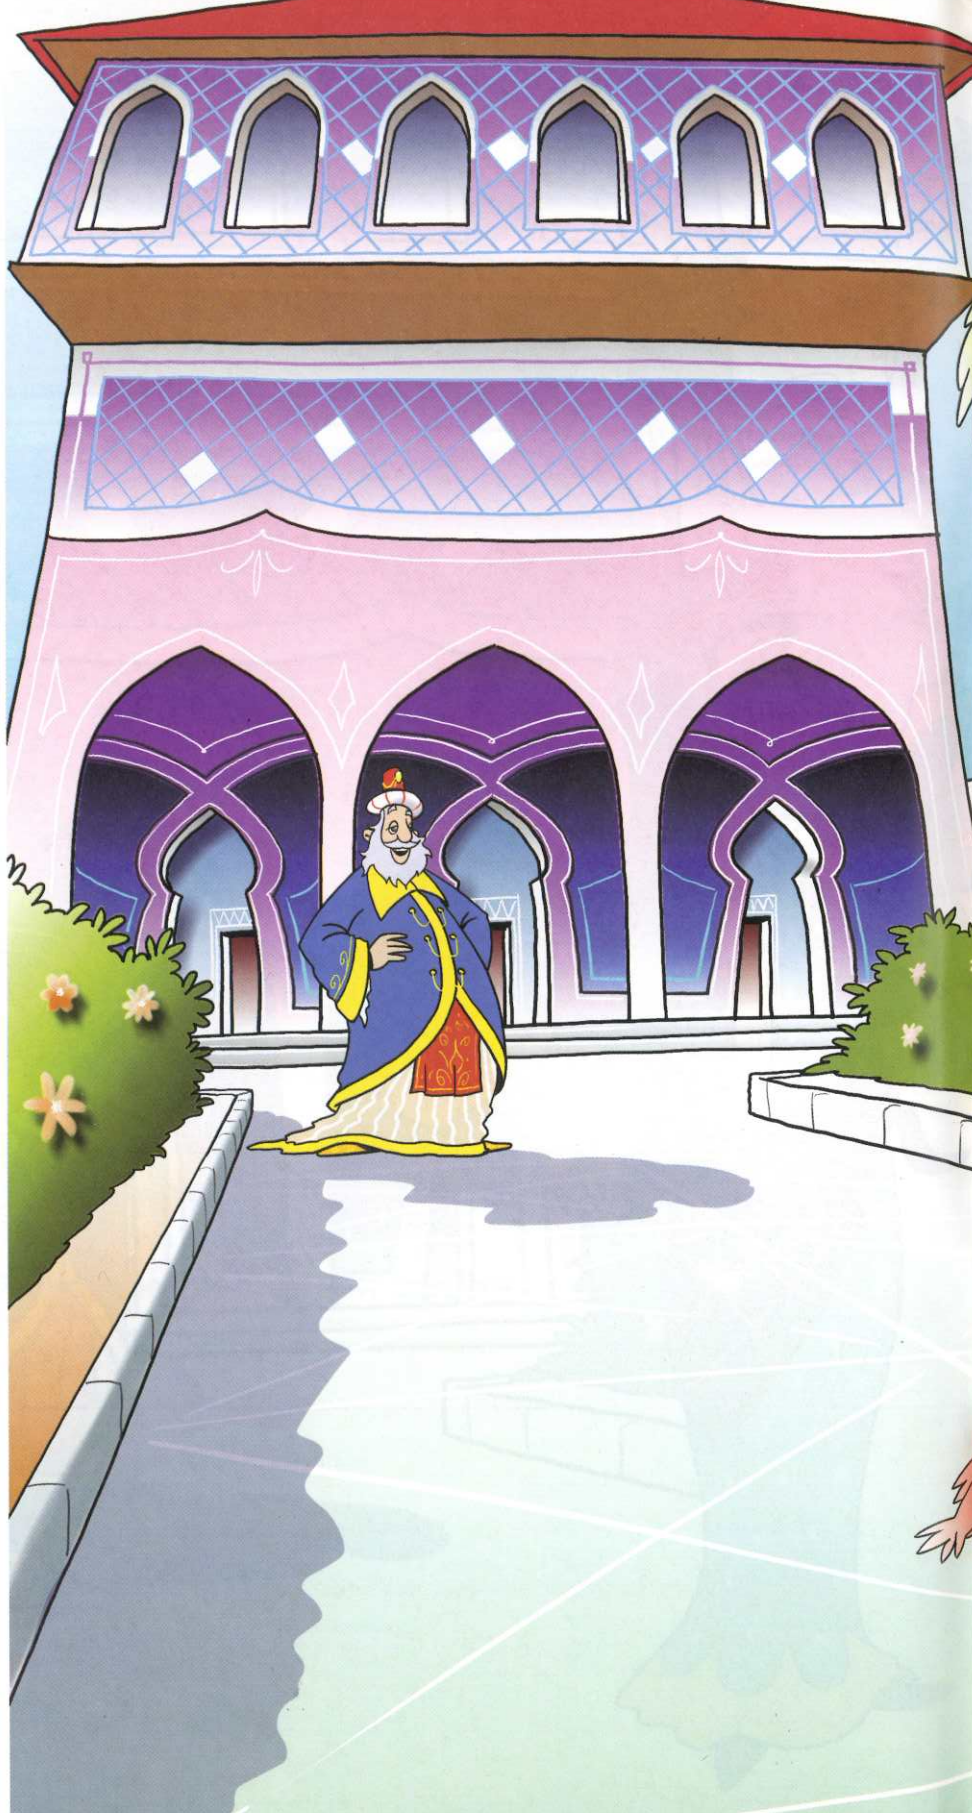

a princess

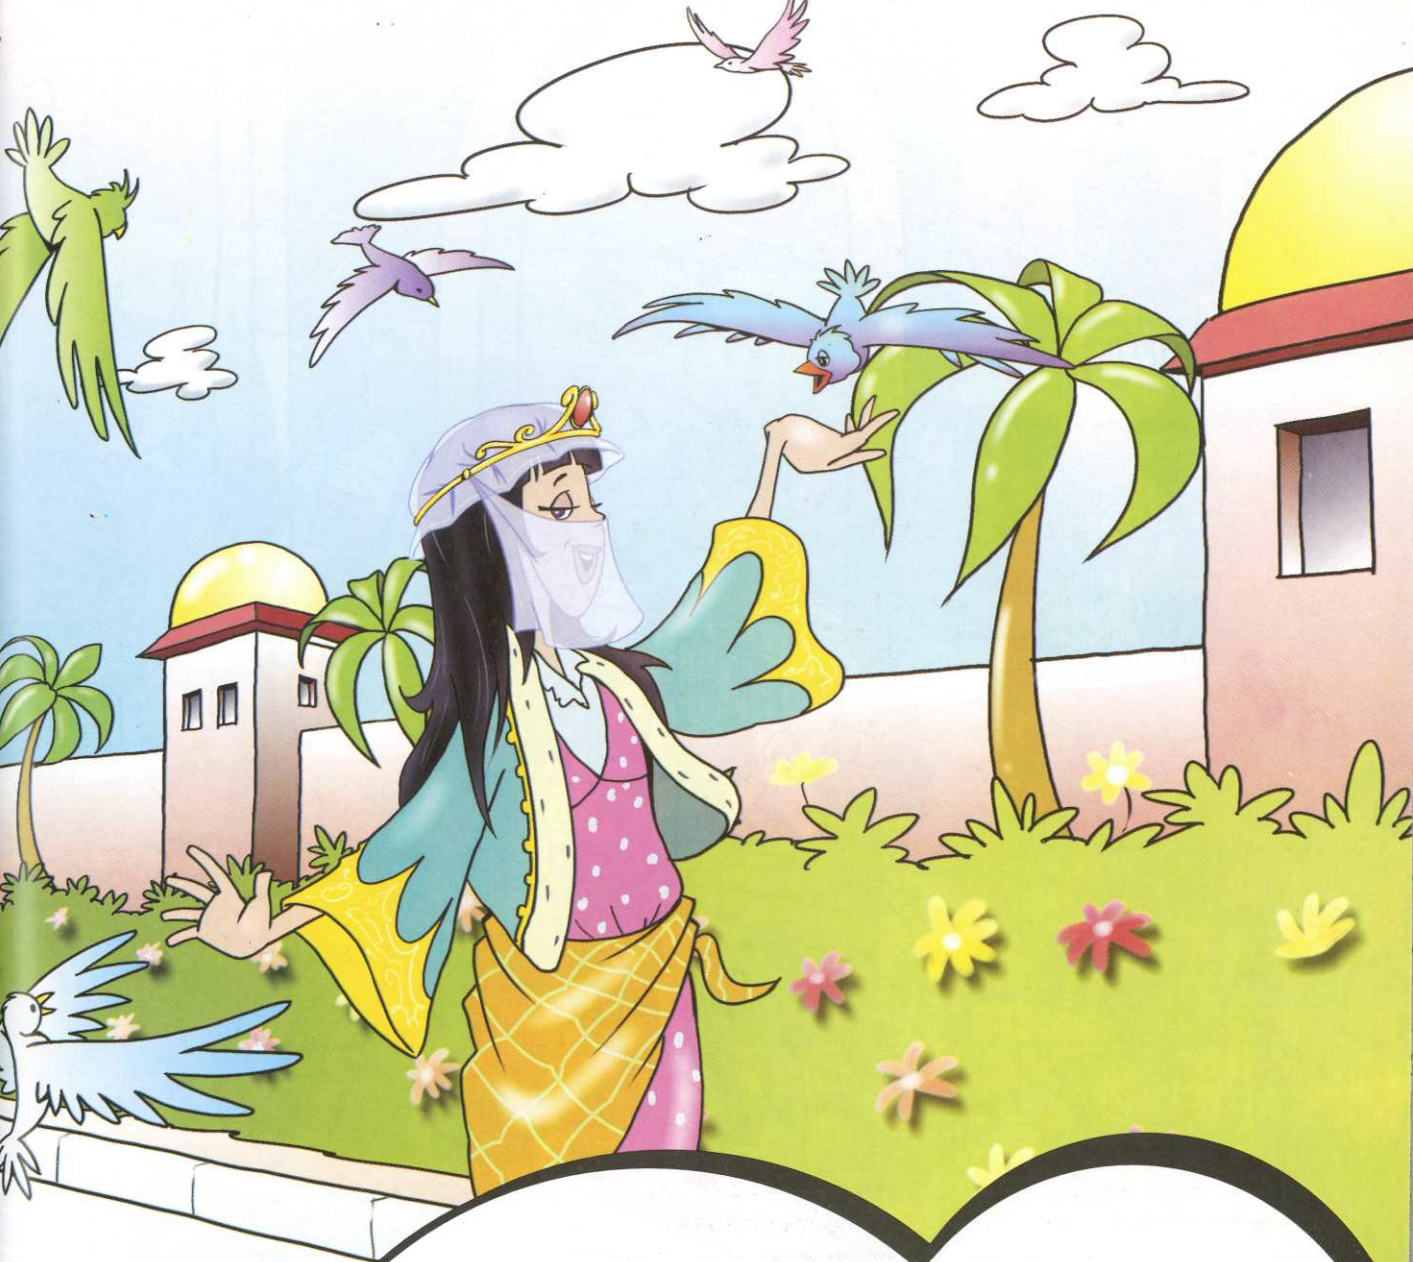

marry

competition

Once upon a time there was a Sultan who had a beautiful daughter. Her name was Perihan and she was so beautiful that birds would start singing when she walked through the gardens. Princes everywhere wanted to marry her. But the Sultan loved his Perihan very much and he could not choose between the princes. So one day, he thought of a competition.

a gift

the world

golden feathers

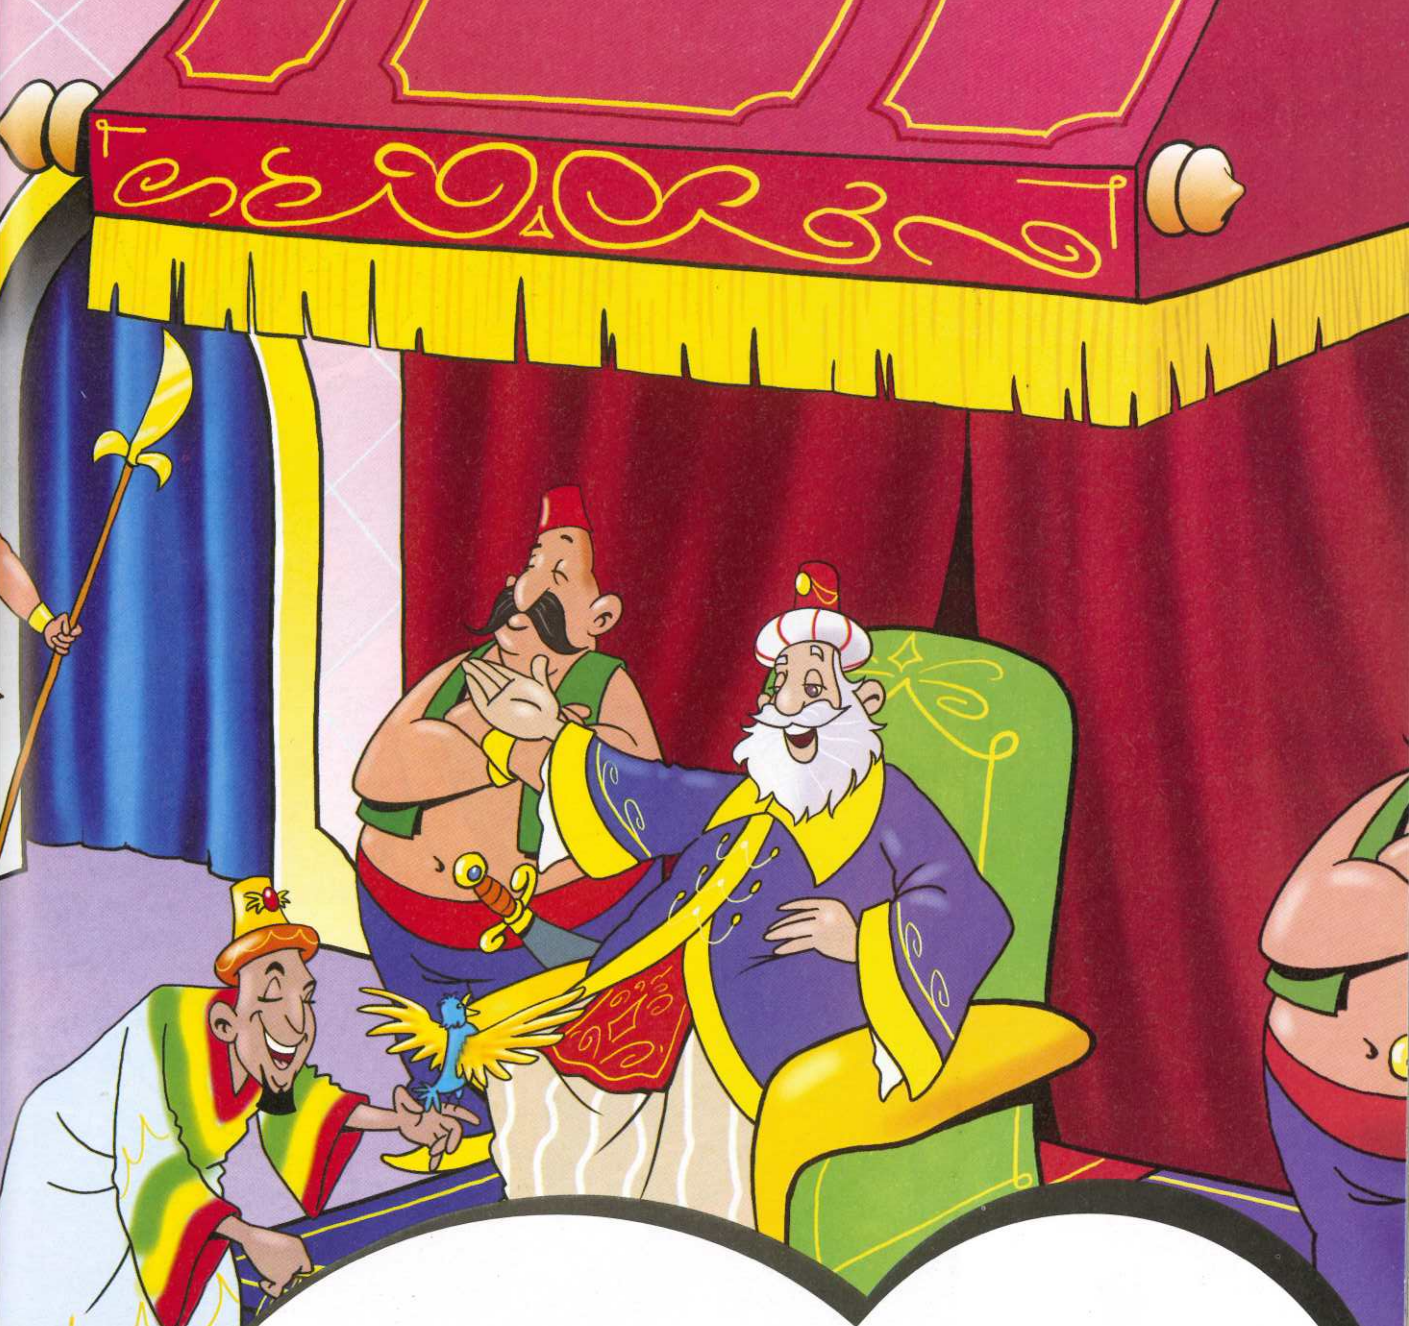

a palace

carry

“The Prince who brings me the most wonderful gift will marry my daughter.” When they heard about the competition, Princes from all over the world brought the Sultan strange gifts. One brought a bird with golden feathers. “Hmm. That’s very nice, but my gardens are full of beautiful birds that can sing, too. I don’t need this golden one.” The Prince left the palace, sadly, carrying the golden bird.

